

- 1) Short video with an impact about the gender gap in leadership position in London. What is this video about? Is there something that struck you? What was the purpose of the video? Do you think it was successful?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=byq-EH9cR00>

- 2) Really short cartoon video of a realistic situation at work+ What is this video about? Do you think it is a realistic situation? Has it ever happened to you? What other situation can you mention? Think about what other kind of situation could a women face in the workplace (everyday challenge mention the e-mail story of Nicole and Martin; authors on book usually show just the initials of the name when the writer is a woman):

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=j3cN\_O2lnal

POSSIBLE CAUSES?

- 3) Video Pink & Blue about gender roles defined by society: What is this video about? Do you recognize these stereotypes? Do they affect career or success opportunities in a positive or negative way for women or men?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=65iC2I4KEXo>

- 4) (INTERNAL CAUSES) Video #Likeagirl by always. What is this video about? What's the message? Do you have the expression "like a girl" in your language? It aims at making some reflections about women insecurity that comes during puberty. That could lead to difficulties in the workplace? What can influence the growing process?:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XjJQBjWYDTs>

- 5) (external causes) What is this video about? Have you ever thought language impacts (work) life of people? And, specifically sexist language affects women? Or do you agree with Donald Trump, there are more important issues? Could you provide some examples of that are sexist both english and own language:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4qqRZju9m\_M